THEY SAY

- That all the June weddings were not made in heaven.
- That a certain single man bought two beautiful suits of ladies silk pajamas last week. Why?
- That a certain man took his vacation after long years of service but not until he had lost his job.
- That it is not good for some people to advance too rapidly else a case of "swell head" results.
- That a certain young lady cannot find a husband because there are no eligible blondes.
- That a certain couple who became engaged some time ago "broke it up" because they failed to receive the sanction of their parents.
- That certain young ladies lay aside color prejudice when Sunday joy riding is offered and the right men are out of town.
- That Mrs. Joe E. Herriford, Jr., is a most striking young bride and will prove an addition to Kansas City society.

TROY, KANSAS.

Special to the Kansas City Sun.
The annual sermon of the U. B. of F. and S. M. T. and juveniles was the largest "turnout" of its kind ever held in Troy. The order marched into the A. M. E. Church promptly at the appointed hour after which a beautiful program was rendered. Mr. Joseph Lee was Master of Ceremonies.
Rev. Enyard preached a very impressive sermon. The collection was $5.50 for the U. B. F., $4.00 for the S. M. T. and $4.10 for the juveniles.
Appropriate remarks were made by the following officers: Roy Robinson, W. M.; Mrs. M. Brown, W. P.; Mary Schumacher, Past W. P. and Mother Matron of the Juveniles; Vernay Lightie, Maiden Princess; J. W. Ward, Past W. M., and Mrs. Anna Ward.

The most beautiful part was the signs and marching by 25 little bright faced juveniles who are thoroughly interested in the work.... Last week the Bernum & Bailey Circus was attended by Alex. The wedding of Miss Hattie Pearl Gipsen to Mr. Clarence Wendell Carter, of Macon, Mo., was solemnized at the beautiful home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Gipsen, August 4th at 8 o'clock p.m., Rev.
